

42 Lerderberg Street Bacchus Marsh VIC

4 2 1

Situated in the heart of Bacchus Marsh surrounded by established gardens, the set back of this house creates a sense of privacy. This four bedroom home master with ensuite and walk in robe, offering a renovated tiled central bathroom and separate powder room, the light-filled open plan kitchen, dining and living area is an area sure to impress with a wood fireplace for those cold winter months, split system heating and cooling, electric heaters built in shelving and most importantly, a chef-worthy kitchen featuring timber-cabinetry complete with a large island bench, impressive storage, and various stainless-steel appliances such as dishwasher, oven, and gas stove-top cooking.

Stepping outside, relax and enjoy the alfresco-style entertaining deck with plenty of shade from a deciduous tree canopy. The remainder of the back yard has a
